Last meeting's minutes were written by Vice President Fawn Conley and digitally produced/posted by Secretary JoAnna Dickey.

A welcome was provided by the EKURA President Ron Wolfe.

Guest speakers Billie Dyer from MEPCO Home Health (part of the Madison County Health Department) and Heather Slone from the Richmond Senior Citizens Center presented information.

There was an announcement that information flyers and cards about community events can be distributed at EKURA meetings.

Tammy Taylor provided an update on the EKURA scholarship fund and investment earnings.

Information about travel for the May trip to the Corvette museum was given.

The EKURA brochure has been completed. Ron asked for feedback and will distribute the brochure at the ECU retirement dinner.

By-law changes were announced and will be voted upon at the June meeting: Article 3 – Members

From: b. Associate membership in the Association shall be open to the spouses of regular members who are not eligible for regular membership and to the spouses of deceased retired faculty and staff.

To: b. Associate membership in the Association shall be open to the spouses or partners of any living or deceased regular member.

EKURA delegates will be attending the KRTA meeting in Louisville in April. The EKURA will be recognized for extending its membership goal. We also submitted a candidate for volunteer of the year to the KRTA.

Benefits from the KRTA were announced including the long term care program.

Programs for next year are being planned including one with the new ECU President and the new Vice President for Advancement.

The 2013/14 interest groups are as follows:

Travel - Charles Hay, Dee Riggs, and others

Arts and Crafts – JoAnna Dickey

Food and Drink – Ron and Ruth Wolfe, Billy and Nancy Thames, and John and Martha Davidson.

Recognition of President Doug Whitlock may be planned at a future meeting.

The next meeting will be June 18, 2013 at 11:30 in Gillums Sports Lounge in Richmond, KY.
