

EKU Retirees Association
Minutes of April 17, 2012
(Read and approved June 19, 2012)

Location: Gillum's Sports Lounge, Richmond, KY

Time: 11:30

Guest Speaker: Don McNay

Topic: Money Management: It's Not the Lottery, It's Your Life

President –Elect, Ron Wolfe welcomed ECU Retiree Association members, new members, and guests. Secretary, JoAnna Dickey read the minutes for the February meeting. Minutes for this meeting were approved. Pat Ridgley provided a Treasurer report.

Dot Kirkpatrick distributed sign-up sheets at each table for those interested in going on the May 17th trip to a horse farm and provided information about the trip.

The EKURA scholarship recipient, Sarah Morrow, was present and thanked the members for their support. She is a double major: Special Education and Elementary Education.

The topic of EKURA by-law revision was announced by Ron Wolfe. A motion to adopt the proposed changes to the by-laws was provided, seconded and approved. The motion was voted upon and carried.

There were three announcements: 1. The date and time were provided for the ECU Chapel Memorial Service; 2. The EKURA will have a presence at the ECU retirement dinner – membership information will be provided; 3. New officer nominations for the President-Elect and Secretary were requested to be submitted to Ron Wolfe for discussion at the June meeting.

Don McNay provided written and presentation information on the topic of money management. He gave helpful suggestions about: what to do if you win lottery money, how to build wealth slowly, and what to do about credit cards, mortgages, and wills. He also advocated the practice of giving back to society.

With no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

The next EKURA meeting will occur on June 19th at Gillum's Sports Lounge, Richmond, KY.
