

EKU Retirees Association
Minutes of October 19, 2010
(Read and approved February 15 2010)

Location: Gillums Sport Lounge, Richmond, KY

Time: 11:30

Guest Speaker: Carrie Cooper, Dean of ECU Libraries

Topic: The ECU Libraries and the Noel Studio for Academic Creativity

President Dot Kirkpatrick could not attend this meeting. Therefore, Treasurer Karl Park opened the meeting with greetings. Karl provided an update on Dot's health progress and we all wished her a speedy recovery. He also provided a treasurer's report and announced that it would be posted on the EKURA website (<http://retirees.eku.edu/>).

Minutes of the August meeting were read by Secretary JoAnna Dickey. The minutes were approved.

Karl provided a brief report on the two trips taken by members and guests of the EKURA. These two trips were the trip to the World Equestrian Games and the trip to the Big South Fork Scenic Railway. Pictures were provided of the railway and the Blue Heron Mine. Karl announced that the next trip will be to visit the Toyota plant in Scott County on Wed., November 10. Arrangements and identification information must be provided by to Dee Riggs or Dot Kirkpatrick by Nov. 1. Our December meeting will take place at Arlington on December 14th. Reservations and a fee of $14.00 per person must be sent to Karl Park by Dec. 3rd.

JoAnna introduced the guest speaker, Carrie Cooper, Dean of the ECU Libraries.

Dean Cooper provided interesting facts about the libraries. She announced the dedication of the Noel Studio for Academic Creativity on October 29th. Dean Cooper also provided information about becoming a "Friend of the ECU Libraries" (<http://www.library.eku.edu/new/content/friends.php>). Copies of the ECU Libraries' newsletter "Between the Columns" were distributed as well as highlight pens.

After the presentation, we thanked our speaker and the meeting was adjourned.

The next meeting will be December 14th at 11:30 in Arlington.
