

EKU Retirees Association Minutes of October 24, 2006

The meeting was convened at 12:30 p.m. by President Glen Kleine in Section C of the grandstands at Keeneland Raceway. About two dozen members were present. President Kleine implicitly assigned the members present with the task of enjoying an afternoon of racing at one of the most attractive race tracks in the country. There was neither a Treasurers report, nor minutes from the secretary (although the secretary distributed race picks from the Herald-Leader).

At 1:15, the first race was run. Mr. Blackstone won paying $6:40, $3.80, & $2.80.

At 1:45, the second race was run, with Total winning and paying $4.60, $3.60, & $3.20.

At 2:15, the third race was won by Wundelia. She paid $4.40, $3.00, & $2.40.

At 2:45, the fourth race left the gate. Peace Pledge was the winner, posting payoffs of $14.00, $6.00, & $5.00. Unfortunately, yours truly did not have a ticket on this speedy mare.

At 3:15, the fifth race resulted in Celestial Woods taking first place and paying $5.00, $3.40, & $3.00.

At the completion of this race, President Kleine had to leave, so, in the absence of President-Elect Willi Walker; the gavel was passed to the able hands of Immediate Past-President Dot Kirkpatrick.

At 3:45, the sixth race was run and won by Rutledge Ballado, who paid $32.00, $12.80, & $6.00. (WOW)

At the close of this race, Past-President Kirkpatrick left, handing the gavel off to your humble secretary, Jay G. Riggs.

At 4:15, the seventh race saw Any Given Saturday as the winner with payoffs of $6.80, $3.80, & $2.80.

At 4:45, the tenth running of the Buffalo Trace Stakes race was run. Society Hostess came from last place on the backstretch to win: but I forgot to note what she paid. (I was too busy rushing to cash my place ticket.)

At this point, we lacked a quorum to continue the meeting and were adjourned a good time having been had by all.
