School supplies were collected for the KRTA affiliate school project

Gloves, hats, mittens, and scarves were collected for the Salvation Army.

President Ron Wolfe welcomed everyone and provided a holiday story.

After lunch, announcements were made:

- Thank you for contributions to the above mentioned projects
- The EKURA may start some interest groups – ideas are welcomed
- Please submit your name and volunteer hours to be considered for a nomination to the KRTA volunteer award
- Electronic minutes were posted on the EKURA website by Glen Kleine and submitted by Secretary, JoAnna Dickey. The October 16, 2012 meeting minutes were approved as posted.
- The Salvation Army and KRTA School projects were explained
- Reminder that the next meeting is February 19th with Larry Bailey as speaker
- The trip to the Freedom Museum on March 19th was announced
- There is no meeting or trip in January

Past President, Charles Hay, announced the luncheon speaker, Bill Ellis.

Dr. Ellis gave a presentation about Kentucky Christmas Humor.

Ron Wolfe, gave recognition to the EKURA officers, Tammy Taylor, and Glen Kleine for the work provided to the EKURA this year.

Tammy Taylor collected and organized door prizes and table favors. President Elect, Fawn Conley helped distribute them. The jar of honey table favors were obtained from the EKU Development office and decorated by Tammy Taylor. See the provided table below that lists the type, name, and contributor of door prizes for this meeting.

The next meeting will be February 19th at 11:30 in the Gillums Sport Lounge, Richmond, KY.
